Status: Founding Team Governance Document

1. INTRODUCTION

This Founding Members Roles, Responsibilities & Accountability Charter ("Charter") establishes the organizational structure, duties, responsibilities, authority, reporting relationships and performance expectations of the founding members of Collekt Technologies Limited ("Collekt" or the "Company").

The purpose of this Charter is to establish a clear division of responsibilities among the founding members and ensure that each member understands the function they are expected to perform in building, operating and growing Collekt.

This Charter is intended to complement, and not replace, the Company's Articles of Association, shareholders' agreement, employment or consultancy agreements, intellectual property agreements, confidentiality agreements, equity agreements and other formal legal documents applicable to each founding member.

2. COLLEKT'S OBJECTIVE

Collekt is being developed as a digital platform designed to connect individuals and businesses with qualified and verified professionals.

The Company's initial growth strategy is based on four fundamental areas:

1. Building and maintaining a reliable technology platform;
2. Building a trusted database of verified professionals;
3. Building an active professional and user community; and
4. Acquiring companies and commercial opportunities that generate activity and revenue on the platform.

Every founding member shall contribute directly to one or more of these objectives.

3. FOUNDING TEAM STRUCTURE

The initial founding team shall comprise the following positions:

Executive Leadership

1. Founder & Chief Executive Officer (CEO)
2. Chief Operating Officer (COO)

Professional Verification

3. Professional Verification Lead I
4. Professional Verification Lead II

Marketing & Communications

5. Social Media & Content Lead I
6. Social Media & Content Lead II

Community

7. WhatsApp Community Manager

The Company may create additional positions as Collekt grows.

4. ORGANIZATIONAL PRINCIPLE

The founding team shall operate on the principle that:

The CEO establishes the vision and strategic direction; the COO coordinates execution; and each functional lead is accountable for delivering measurable results within their area of responsibility.

Each founding member shall have authority over the responsibilities specifically assigned to their role, subject to the overall authority of the CEO and the operational coordination of the COO.

5. CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Position

Chief Executive Officer (CEO)

Role Purpose

The CEO shall provide overall leadership and strategic direction for Collekt and shall be responsible for the Company's long-term development, commercial success, product direction, strategic relationships and growth.

The CEO shall be the principal representative of Collekt in dealings with investors, companies, strategic partners and other external stakeholders.

5.1 Strategic Responsibilities

The CEO shall:

- Define and communicate Collekt's vision and mission.
- Establish the Company's strategic objectives.
- Define the Company's business model and market positioning.
- Establish short-, medium- and long-term growth priorities.
- Identify new markets, opportunities and strategic initiatives.

Each founding member shall disclose any actual or potential conflict between their personal interests and the interests of Kollekt.

No founding member shall knowingly use Company information, relationships, opportunities or resources for personal benefit without prior authorization.

22. EQUITY

Any equity or shareholding granted to a founding member shall be governed by a separate written equity, shareholders' or vesting agreement.

Participation in the founding team does not automatically constitute ownership of shares in Kollekt.

Where equity is granted, such equity may be subject to vesting, performance requirements, applicable Company documentation and applicable law.

23. CHANGES TO RESPONSIBILITIES

As Kollekt develops, the responsibilities contained in this Charter may change.

The CEO may propose changes to responsibilities based on:

- Company growth;
- New products;
- New markets;
- Additional employees;
- Investment;
- Operational requirements.

Material changes to a member's contractual or equity rights shall be documented separately where required.

24. FOUNDING TEAM PRINCIPLES

All founding members agree to operate according to the following principles:

- Ownership
- Take responsibility for assigned work and outcomes.
- Accountability
- Do not wait to be reminded repeatedly about agreed responsibilities.
- Integrity
- Protect the trust of users, professionals, companies and the Company.
- Collaboration
- Work together rather than operating as isolated individuals.
- Initiative
- Identify problems and propose solutions.
- Professionalism
- Represent Kollekt responsibly at all times.
- Growth
- Every activity should ultimately contribute to building Kollekt.

25. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

By signing this Charter, each founding member acknowledges that they have read and understood the responsibilities associated with their respective role and agree to perform those responsibilities to the best of their ability.

The parties acknowledge that this Charter establishes the Company's internal organizational and accountability framework and should be read together with any separate employment, consultancy, equity, shareholders', confidentiality and intellectual property agreements applicable to each founding member.
